BOOTH RULES & GUIDELINES

Booth Dimensions:

It is your responsibility to remain within your booth space and to not encroach on your neighbour's booth space.

Booth Table:

is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to dress the table with a tablecloth and/or skirting.

Booth Draping:

If you are providing draping for your booth, the draping must remain free and clear of your neighbouring booths. Draping will be permitted for the back wall of your booth only and may not exceed 8' in both height and width. Draping to separate you from your neighbouring booth may be allowed if it does not exceed a height of 3'.

Booth Canopy:

If you are planning to include a canopy in your booth, you must first contact Shandy prior to the show at info@springfieldchambercommerce.com to ensure there is no conflict or infringement to neighbouring booths.

Booth Standards:

Please make sure your booth is staffed at all times during the public hours by qualified representatives. You are also required to keep your booth attractive and clean and that your company name is clearly visible. Free standing bulletin boards and/or signs may be used, providing neighbouring Exhibitors are not blocked or hidden from view. Please ensure any unfinished surfaces are not exposed to neighbouring booths. It is extremely important that you keep your display within your allotted space.

Show Management has the right to restrict or remove any promotional material on display at an Exhibitor booth that is deemed improper or those displays that will hamper the visibility to other booths. At all times, Show Management reserves the right to make the final decision in this regard.

Every booth must be set up and "ready for business" by 9:45am on the morning of the event. Each booth is to be open and staffed during the event hours. No booth may be left unattended at any time. Exhibitor agrees that they will not dismantle, pack up or remove any part of their booth display until 7:00pm. Please cooperate to keep your booth intact until the event closes and attendees have departed.

Business at your Booth:

Exhibitor personnel/recruiters distributing promotional material, soliciting recruits, conducting interviews or demonstrations, must do so within the Exhibitors booth space only. Exhibitors are not allowed to distribute materials in the aisles or elsewhere in the public areas. Aisles may not be blocked and canvassing outside of an Exhibitors booth is strictly prohibited.

Signage:

All booths must have professionally lettered signage so all companies can be properly identified. Signs may be in the form of a tablecloth or runner, retractable banner, feather flags, board signs or canopies, etc. Signage may not extend into the aisles or neighbouring booths.

Care of Building:

No part of any exhibit or any signs shall be pasted, nailed, or otherwise attached to the walls, doors, or ceilings, etc. Painting, nailing, or drilling on any part of the building is strictly prohibited. Any damage arising by failure to observe these rules shall be paid by the Exhibitor.

Exhibitors wishing to lay floor covering must use an adhesive that will not damage the floor and is easily removed at the end of the show. If tape is not removed within an Exhibitor's display, the cost of removal will be charged to the Exhibitor.

Candles or any open flames are NOT permitted in your booth.

All crates, boxes, dollies, and carts must be out of your booth before the start of the event.

It is the responsibility of each Exhibitor to clean their own booth space. Please ensure that you clean up any debris in the aisle ways that may have originated from your booth.

Noise, Music and Licensing:

Any Exhibitor using reproductions of sound recordings must have a Connect Music License. Sound equipment, radios, television sets or the operation of any machinery equipment must be kept within the Exhibitor booth space and be of sufficient volume as to not disturb any Exhibitors in surrounding booths. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to ensure all noise remain at a minimal level.

BOOTH TIPS AND SUGGESTIONSBooth Table:

We highly recommend you bring a tablecloth to cover your table! Consider attractive colours or other designs that promote your business.

Maximum use of Space:

Here are some ideas of how to use the space:

- Set up a private interview area behind your table where you can chat one-on-one with potential employees
- Display what your business is about! Do a mock set-up of what employees might see when they work for you

- Set your table back more and use the space up front to stand and chat with attendees and hand out promotional material
- Forgo the 6' table and chairs altogether and set up a couple of comfy chairs, or cocktail tables and chairs – something to represent the business you run

Exhibitor Personnel/Recruiters:

Ensure that every person who is running your booth is well versed in your business. Potential clients/customers will have questions and will want to know why THEY should work for YOU.

Promotional Materials:

Not everyone will apply for a job at your business on the fair day. Make sure to have something attendees can take home with them to review later. It is a good idea to include information about the job, your website and how they can contact you. Try to answer the question: Why would someone want to work here?

We anticipate several hundred attendees at the fair, and although not everyone will visit your booth, 200 handouts would be a good place to start.

Other Booth Items:

Have a list of the jobs that you have available and job descriptions to support these vacancies. Consider having applications at your booth for potential employees to fill out, along with plenty of pens and even clip boards if you think they may be needed. Small items to give away are also a way to attract people to your booth. Pens, lanyards, candy, chocolates, or other items at your booth can be a good way to get people to come talk to you. This is completely up to you!
